Dear friends and colleagues,

The Chinese College of Surgeons (CCS) invites you and your organization to attend the 10th CCS Annual Meeting, which will be held at Beijing International Convention Center, Beijing, China on May 19-21, 2017. The meeting is sponsored by the Chinese College of Surgeons (CCS) and the Chinese Medical Doctor Association (CMDA), and organized by Peking University People's Hospital.

The CCS Annual Meeting is the premier annual surgical meeting in China that provides an education and training opportunity for surgeons, and serves as an excellent venue for networking with colleagues. Last year, we were proud to host over 5,000 attendees with an unprecedented number of distinguished guest speakers and leaders from home and abroad.

The 2017 CCS Annual Meeting will be an international academic conference covering both clinical and nonclinical topics, and should be of interest to surgeons from across various specialties. The purpose of the meeting is to keep our surgeons abreast of the current status of surgery. To accomplish its purpose, the meeting will offer lectures focusing on the latest developments and technologies in surgery.

This year, CCS will reach its 10th Anniversary. It is time for us to look back in what we have achieved in the past and have a memorable celebration.

On behalf of the CCS, I cordially invite you and your organization to join us and participate in the 10th CCS Annual Meeting in Beijing. With your presence and contributions, the meeting will be an unforgettable educational endeavor.

Should there be any queries, please feel free to contact our secretary general, Dr. JIANG on +8613511078178 or via email college_surgeons@sina.com.

Best Regards,

Yours Sincerely,

WANG Shan, MD & PhD
Chairman of the 10th Annual Meeting of CCS
President of Chinese College of Surgeons
